Discussion/Possible Action – Safety Sensitive Position:

Reding stated those positions presented by the Elected Officials and Department heads were run through the BOCC this morning but are now being brought before the Budget Board for final approval. District 1 and District 3 will be listing their secretaries, Foreman, and all other laborer employees. District 2 position the First Deputy, Emergency Management staff, and Environmental Enforcement, as well as the entire Sheriff's Office will be listed as safety sensitive for various reasons. Woodward stated these employees would be notified and given 30-days' notice. These are positions that must be a physical hurt, a position that could hurt themselves or someone else with equipment. The board will leave this item open until the end of the month to approve presented positions to the board. Motion by Woodward to approve safety sensitive positions as presented to the budget board, second by Cavett. Roll Call Vote: Allen-Yes, Manning-Yes, Cavett-Yes, Mathis-Yes, Reding-Yes, Blasier-Yes, Woodward-Yes.

Discussion – Critical Infrastructure Security and Resilience:

Reding handed out a guide to critical infrastructure security and resilience to the board. With offsite backups Reding stated that we have already began some of this. No action taken.

New Business/discussion-no action will be taken.

Dondee Klein has requested additional funds for $16,471.00 for the county special February 11th election, and $5,100 for the county special March election. Reding inquired on discussing this in January, Klein said that was fine. Reding stated that taxes has been mailed so taxpayers will be coming in to pay taxes, he has asked that Payne County employees please do not park in the main parking lot to allow for plenty of parking.
